

If we are willing to pay monthly for this service, isn't it obvious that this company is providing a valuable and entertaining service? I rely on the traffic channel now, even though it hasn't been out long. The quality and variety of programming is top notch. Please reject petition 04-160 and allow the service to continue offering all its current programming.